Total Score

A/A+ = (10 points)

It is amazing! You showed initiative and originality. You did something extra special or You went beyond all expectations or You broke the rules in a creative way. Your craftsmanship is exceptional! You have included all of the required element

B/B+ = (8.5 points)

It is GOOD! It is all I ask for. You were a "self starter". You did everything I requested – followed all directions the first time. You met all expectations , but did not push the boundaries.

Shows mastery of skills and craftsmanship. You have included most of the required element

C/C+ = (7.5 points)

Well OK.... It is not up to snuff You did just enough to get by. You did minimum requirements.

You might have thrown it together? Didn't care much for this project? Poor craftsmanship – lacks skill.

You did not try very hard. You have included some of the required element

D/D+ = (6 points)

Woops!! It is not finished. You did not meet the lesson objectives You did not follow directions – You did not try very hard You forgot to finish it. OR you hurried through.

Low effort – below expectations for skills. Poor craftsmanship. You have included very little of the required element

F = Big Fat O!! It is missing.

Did you forget to put your name on it? Were you absent? Did you lose it or throw it away? I saw you working on it – but cannot find it now? No effort – no participation. Poor work. No project – no grade.
